Barlaston [Pirehill] (St John The Baptist or St Peter) {independent parochial curacy}
From 1605 Barlaston was in the patronage of Sir Richard Leveson of Lilleshall, Salop K.B. c1598-1661 (or his guardian until c1619) and then his great nephew Francis Leveson Fowler of Harnage Grange, Salop Esquire 1641-1667 (or his guardian until 1662).
But during the intrusion (1644/60) Leveson was sequestrated and the patronage passed to the CAPP.
In 1644 the ministerial salary of about £10 pa was to be augmented by about £50.
In Jan 1661.2 a clerical subsidy of xx was paid.
In 1665 the parish of one township was a simple parochial constablewick.

Barlaston [Pirehill] (St John the Baptist or St Peter) was an independent parochial curacy probably in the patronage of Francis Leveson Fowler of Harnage Grange, Salop Esquire 1641-1667. His father Richard Fowler of Harnage Grange, Salop Esquire c1618-1687 qua guardian of his under-age son had probably presented Ralph Murhall c1626-1696 who was appointed parochial curate in Feb 1661.2. The parish of one township was a simple parochial constablewick.

Henry Taylor (parochial curate of Barlaston) c1591-....
Taylor, born about 1591, is of unknown parentage. He studied at Cambridge where at Easter 1609 he was a pensioner at St John's College and matriculated. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. 1611.2 (M.A.) 1615. He was presumably ordained deacon (? and priest) before 24 Oct 1624 when (styled reader and preacher) he was probably appointed as parochial curate of Gayton and in 1627/8 was (? also) parochial curate of Stowe. By 1632 probably after presention by Sir Richard Leveson of Lilleshall, Salop K.B. c1598-1661 Taylor had been licensed as parochial curate of Barlaston. Leveson paid Taylor a salary of £10 pa. From 5 Feb 1643.4 Taylor continued here as compliant minister. On 27 Jun 1644 the Staffordshire Parliamentary Committee "understanding that the now minister Mr. Henry Tayler being a paynefull preacher and a deserving man" ordered that his salary be increased to £60. The augmentation was to be funded from the tithes sequestered from Leveson. On 25 May 1653 Taylor "begs for possession of the glebe lands, etc, in addition to the tithes of the rectory which had been settled on the minister in part payment of Leveson's fine." No further record has been discovered. On 19 Sep 1656 his successor Samuel Hall c1663-1665 was nominated as presbyterian minister. [This entry may confuse men of the same name.]

Samuel Hall B.A. (presbyterian minister of Barlaston) c1633-1665 B23
Hall, born about 1633 in Cheshire, was a son of Ralph Hall (later presbyterian minister of Newcastle) e1604-1685 QV. He studied at Cambridge where on 14 May 1652 he was admitted sizar at Jesus College and matriculated the same year. He was tutored by Thomas Woodcock. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1655.6. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 19 Sep 1656 when after nomination by the Trustees for maintenance he was to be approved by the Commission for approbation of public preachers as presbyterian minister of Barlaston independent parochial chapelry - and was admitted on 26 Sep. On 16 Sep 1657 he was classically ordained as a presbyterian minister by Shropshire 4th (or Bradford North) Classis at Prees together with Philip Henry (presbyterian minister of Worthenbury, Flints) c1630-1696. Whilst at Barlaston he received an augmentation (previously paid to his predecessor) of £50 to his annual salary. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto parochial curate. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 3/0. On 24 Aug 1662 he did not subscribe to The act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. His house at Barlaston had been assessed on one hearth but in 1665 it was recorded "but now the house puld downe". By that year Hall was living at Olton in Stone where he died, aged about 32, and was buried on 12 Apr 1665 (perhaps as requested in the chancel) at Stone. His will made on 6 Apr 1665 was proved under Lichfield on 1 Aug 1665. Hall married on 26 Oct 1656 at Newcastle to Alice Smith by whom he had 2 sons. Both these sons - Jonathan and Samuel - are mentioned in his will and also in his father's will where it is hoped Samuel "would make an emin't instrument of his [God's] glory ". This was Samuel Hall (?presbyterian minister of Tiverton, Devon) 1662-1730. Calamy records in 1727 that Hall "had the Reputation of a very pious Person, and an excellent Preacher, as well as of a good Scholar; the latter of which is justif'd by some Manuscripts in the Hands of his Son ..." In his will Hall asked that he "be carried to my place of buriall by my worthy friends Mr Goddard Mr Swynfen Mr Mott & Mr Davenport". The latter three men are probably Richard Swinfen (presbyterian minister of Mavesyn Ridware) 1630-1691 QV, John Mott (presbyterian minister of Kings Bromley) e1623-1671 QV and ----- Davenport (minister of Newchapel) QV.

Ralph Murhall M.A. (parochial curate of Barlaston) c1626-1696 D86

Murhall, born about 1626, was a son of John Murhall of Staffordshire. He studied at Cambridge where on 27 Jun 1645 he was admitted as a sizar at Pembroke College and matriculated. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1648.9 (M.A., 1652). He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 4 Jul 1655 when he was approved by the Commission for approbation of public preachers as presbyterian minister of Talk-on-the-Hill parochial chapelry. On 6 Oct 1655 he was classically ordained as a presbyterian clergyman by a ?Surrey classis at Bermondsey St Mary Magdalene. At Talk he was replaced in office by 1659. In early Jun 1660 he may not have been in an office. By 1661 - then presumably anglicanly ordained deacon - he had been licensed parochial curate of Acton Trussell. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 21 Aug 1662 and was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield in Sep 1662. At Acton Trussell he was replaced in office the following month. In Feb 1661.2 after probable presentation by Richard Fowler of Harnage Grange, Salop esquire c1618-1687 qua guardian of his under-age son Francis Leveson Fowler of Harnage Grange, Salop esquire 1641-1667 he was licensed parochial curate of Barlaston. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Barlaston constablewick but was not assessed there. About 1678 he left office at Barlaston and is not known to have held further offices. He died, aged about 70, and was buried on 13 Aug 1696 at Caverswall. His will made on 5 Aug 1696 was proved under Lichfield on 23 Oct 1696. His personalty was valued at £112/5/0 and included "Bookes £1". Murhall married on 25 Jul 1666 at Burslem to Ann Malkin (d 1699) by whom he had 4 sons and 1 daughter.
